Nivéole®

VALUE

The Snowflake is an emblematic flower, often associated with purity, simplicity, and elegance. Similarly, our event agency aspires to create events that are both refined and authentic.

Our choice of the Snowflake also conveys a connection with nature and an appreciation for simple yet meaningful things. We value intimate and warm moments, emphasizing harmony with the natural surroundings that will encompass each of our events.

Lastly, discretion and attention to detail are at the heart of our approach. Like the Snowflake, which modestly blooms in mountainous regions, we work quietly behind the scenes to craft unique and unforgettable experiences, where every detail matters.

With the name Nivéole for our agency, we aim to convey a clear message about our values:

“Elegance, purity, simplicity, closeness to nature, discretion, and attention to detail ”.

The Nivéole flower was initially created uniquely, then duplicated into 4 before retaining only two elements and rotating them at a certain angle, revealing the silhouette of a woman inside.

ABOUT US

Founded by Nadia and Pascal, dedicated and experienced wedding planners, Nivéole Agency was born from a shared love for love stories and “their love story with a capital L.” We are parents of two boys and understand the importance of family bonds. Each of us brings a unique and complementary background and perspective, but we share the same unwavering passion for organizing beautiful celebrations of love.

Our journey began several years ago when Nadia planned her own wedding. Driven by a deep appreciation for the magic that unfolds when two hearts unite, Nadia and Pascal embarked on a mission to help others experience the same enchantment.

Nadia, 40, is a graduate of the École Française des Créateurs et Décorateurs d'Évènements as a "Wedding Planner, Wedding Designer." With 20 years of experience as an executive assistant in major corporations, she dedicated 10 years to working in the heart of Paris. Her natural passion for organization allowed her to coordinate numerous events.

Pascal, 39, has a wealth of experience. He has worked with a music-focused event association in Bordeaux, where he gained extensive experience in managing various events such as setups, personnel management, site planning, and environmental studies, with an audience of over 7,000 participants during annual festivals. Additionally, his proficiency in three languages—English, French, and Dutch—represents a significant advantage. We will be delighted to assist you effortlessly in organizing your wedding, even if it takes place abroad.

ONE DAY : *€1 400

TWO DAYS : *€1 800

DAY-OF SUPPORT AND COORDINATION

The ‘Big Day’ in the context of a wedding refers to the actual day of the wedding celebration. For a wedding planner, organizing ‘The Big Day’ involves coordinating all the practical and logistical aspects of this day so that the couple and their guests can enjoy every moment without worrying about the details.

This package is perfect for those who want to plan their wedding themselves while delegating the day-of coordination. Two months before the big day, we familiarize ourselves with your preparations and contact your vendors. We then create a detailed timeline, which we send to all vendors, the couple, and their contacts. Guests will receive a detailed schedule of the day.

We offer two customizable options, with the possibility of choosing one or two days, depending on your needs and preferences.

On ‘The Big Day,’ we will be on-site with two coordinators to manage the event as follows:

- PREPARATION OF THE VENUE
- VENDOR CHECK-IN
- SCHEDULE MANAGEMENT
- ASSISTANCE TO THE COUPLE AND GUESTS
- COORDINATION OF TRANSITIONS
- EVENT MONITORING
- CLOSING OF THE DAY

*Prices do not include additional options and travel and accommodation costs beyond 80 km.
